USA3000, Delta add new flights at Lambert

(St. Louis) Two airlines announced new flights at Lambert-St. Louis International Airport for their upcoming spring/summer schedules.

USA3000 Airlines is returning service to St. Petersburg-Clearwater beginning May 1st. The airline had previously ceased service to the Florida destination as a response to high fuel prices. USA3000 says high customer demand was a key factor in resuming service. Passengers can book flights to St. Petersburg-Clearwater immediately.

Delta Air Lines it is adding one additionally daily round-trip flight between St. Louis and Salt Lake City. That additional flight will begin in June. Delta currently operates two daily non-stop flights to SLC from Lambert.

Lambert is the 30th busiest airport in the U.S. as ranked by Airports Council International-North America. Lambert serves nearly 15 million passengers a year with an average of 300 daily departures to 72 national and international destinations.
