Funjet Vacations Brings Non-Stop AeroMexico Charters to St. Louis Travelers can book now for reservations from Lambert to Cancun, Puerto Vallarta

(St. Louis) St. Louis travelers now have more options to popular Mexico destinations. Funjet Vacations is partnering with AeroMexico, Latin America's leading global airline, to launch non-stop charter flights between Lambert-St. Louis International Airport and two of Mexico's most popular destinations just as the winter travel season begins to peak.

Funjet is working with the airline to book flight reservations and full vacation packages for this charter service. The new non-stop service to Cancún begins December 14, 2009 with three flights each week to and from Lambert. Once-a-week non-stop service to Puerto Vallarta begins December 27, 2009. A fourth non-stop flight to Cancún will be added in January.

New non-stop charter service from St. Louis via AeroMexico:

To Cancún/Riviera Maya (CUN)

Departure days of week: Monday, Wednesday, Saturday
Begins December 14, 2009

To Puerto Vallarta (PVR)

Departure day of week: Sunday
Begins December 27, 2009

To Cancún/Riviera Maya (CUN)

Departure days of week: Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday
Begins January 30, 2010

For more information or reservations information, travelers should contact a local travel agent, visit Funjet.com or call 1-800-4FUNJET.

The non-stop Mexico service is just the latest of several new service announcements for Lambert. Frontier Airlines will begin once-a-week non-stop service to Cancun on Dec. 19, 2009. Southwest Airlines begins twice daily non-stop service to Boston and Minneapolis Jan. 11, 2010. Midwest Airlines will launch new non-stop service to Milwaukee beginning March 1, 2010.
