Lambert announces key additions to Airport staff

(St. Louis) Lambert-St. Louis International Airport announces the addition of four new staff members who have joined the airport administration staff since August.

Mr. Donald Robertson joined Lambert as the Assistant Director of DBE programs. He manages disadvantaged and minority business programs for the Airport and the City of St. Louis.

Mr. Jerry Beckmann is Lambert's new Assistant Director of Engineering. He manages all design and construction programs for airfield and facility projects.

Mr. Dana Ryan is the new Airport Planning Manager. He manages strategic planning programs that include land use and development projects for the airfield and terminal facilities.

Ms. Judith Davis-Helms is Lambert's new Airport Risk Manager. She is responsible for managing the Airport's insurance program.

Lambert is the 30th busiest airport in the U.S. as ranked by Airports Council International-North America. Lambert serves more than 14 million passengers a year with an average of 280 daily departures to 70 national and international destinations. Lambert-St. Louis International Airport is an Enterprise Fund Department of the City of St. Louis. It is wholly supported by airport user charges. No general fund revenues are used for the operation, administration, promotion or maintenance of airport facilities.
