

Photo of the Week

Lambert-St. Louis International Airport®

Dec. 22, 2009

“It’s a Wrap”

A Lambert passenger takes advantage of free gift wrapping in the East Terminal on Monday.

Passengers are hitting their Christmas-time destinations this week and they’re armed with gifts. Travelers are encouraged to carry only unwrapped gifts for security reasons. On Monday, Passengers in the East Terminal didn’t have to wait long to wrap their presents. Southwest Airlines and The Container Store offered a one-day free gift wrapping service just inside the security checkpoint. Folks jumped at the chance to dress up their items in gift bags or in red or green gift wrap—all while waiting for their boarding call.

®

©2009 Lambert-St. Louis International Airport · Public Information Office