

Photo of the Week

Lambert-St. Louis International Airport®

July 31, 2009

“On Tap”

More beers are on tap at the newly renamed “Beers of the World” restaurant in the A Concourse.

Lambert’s restaurant and bar scene continues to evolve rapidly with the addition of “Beers of the World” in the A Concourse. The remodeled restaurant replaces the former “B Lounge.” Changes include a new bar, seven plasma television screens and an “around the world” interior design to go along with a more diverse selection of beers. The previous Anheuser-Busch lineup is now expanded to include Beck’s, Bass and Stella Artois and others. While there’s a lot on tap at the bar, the dining area is hopping, too. This is still one of the busiest full service restaurants at Lambert.

®

©2009 Lambert-St. Louis International Airport · Public Information Office