“Wings not Wheels”

Members of Bikers Against Child Abuse from Utah join hundreds of other members for a national convention in St. Louis.

Hundreds of bikers have left their wheels behind to fly to St. Louis this week for a national convention to promote their major cause, fighting child abuse. We caught up with members from the Western Utah Chapter of Bikers Against Child Abuse (B.A.C.A.) as they prepared to board Metrolink for the annual convention. B.A.C.A. members are all volunteers who work with state and local authorities to provide and physical and emotional support for abuse victims.
