

Photo of the Week

Lambert-St. Louis International Airport®
Feb. 12, 2010

“Mardi Gras Day”

Bob Case belts out a tune for arriving passengers in the baggage claim of Terminal 1.

Passengers and Lambert visitors got a rare treat Thursday afternoon. Lambert held its first Mardi Gras Day featuring live New Orleans style rhythm and blues performances by Bob Case and his Wild Assassins. The event was staged to promote one of the region’s greatest attractions—Mardi Gras. Thousands of visitors travel to St. Louis for the Grand Parade and all the surrounding events scheduled this weekend. A few Mardi Gras supporters joined the musicians at both terminals to hand out beads which brought smiles and a few looks of surprise from those who just touched down in St. Louis.

®

©2010 Lambert-St. Louis International Airport · Public Information Office