

Photo of the Week

Lambert-St. Louis International Airport®

Feb. 19, 2010

“New Lambert Preview”

Lambert Director Rhonda Hamm-Niebruegge unveils Airport renovations coming this fall.

Media crowded around Lambert Director Rhonda Hamm-Niebruegge on Thursday to get details and a closer look at the future of Lambert. Hamm-Niebruegge announced that the Airport is committing $50 million for the next phase of renovations in the Airport Experience Program. Work will begin this fall on Concourses A and C with brighter finishes, tile flooring and renovated restrooms. Also on tap, new ticketing counters and Terrazzo flooring in the upper level of Terminal 1. The lower level will see brighter and higher ceilings. New signage and art are also on the way.

®

©2010 Lambert-St. Louis International Airport · Public Information Office