

Photo of the Week

Lambert-St. Louis International Airport®

April 2, 2010

“Midwest Launch”

A Midwest Connect aircraft is pushed back for the airline's first flight from STL to Milwaukee.

Midwest Airlines officially launched new service to and from Lambert on April 1. Marketed as Midwest Connect, the airline is flying twice-daily roundtrips between St. Louis and Milwaukee. Passengers fly 37-seat Embraer 135s. Midwest will serve passengers in the C Concourse from gate C-21. Midwest is located next to its affiliated airline, Frontier, which is now operating at gate C-23.

®

©2010 Lambert-St. Louis International Airport · Public Information Office